CONDITIONS OF SALE

The following Conditions of Sale, as amended by any published or posted notices or verbal announcements during the sale, constitute the entire terms and conditions on which property listed in the catalog shall be offered for sale or sold by Bonhams & Butterfields Auctioneers Corp. and any consignor of such property for whom we act as agent. If live online bidding is available for the subject auction, additional terms and conditions of sale relating to online bidding will apply; see www.bonhams.com/WebTerms for the supplemental terms. As used herein, "Bonhams," "we" and "us" refer to Bonhams & Butterfields Auctioneers Corp.

1. As used herein, the term "bid price" means the price at which a lot is successfully knocked down to the purchaser. The term "purchase price" means the aggregate of (a) the bid price, (b) a PREMIUM retained by us and payable by the purchaser EQUAL TO 25% OF THE FIRST $50,000 OF THE BID PRICE, 20% OF THE AMOUNT OF THE BID PRICE ABOVE $50,000 UP TO AND INCLUDING $1,000,000, AND 12% OF THE AMOUNT OF THE BID PRICE OVER $1,000,000, and (c) unless the purchaser is exempt by law from the payment thereof, any California, Arizona, Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Massachusetts, Nevada, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington, D.C., Washington state, or other state or local sales tax (or compensating use tax) and other applicable taxes.

2. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, the highest bidder shall have purchased the offered lot in accordance and subject to compliance with all of the conditions set forth herein and (a) assumes full risk and responsibility therefor, (b) if requested will sign a confirmation of purchase, and (c) will pay the purchase price in full or such part as we may require for all lots purchased. No lot may be transferred. Any person placing a bid as agent on behalf of another (whether or not such person has disclosed that fact or the identity of the principal) may be jointly and severally liable with the principal under any contract resulting from the acceptance of a bid.

Unless otherwise agreed, payment in good funds is due and payable within five (5) business days following the auction sale. Whenever the purchaser pays only a part of the total purchase price for one or more lots purchased, we may apply such payments, in our sole discretion, to the lot or lots we choose. Payment will not be deemed made in full until we have collected good funds for all amounts due.

Payment for purchases may be made in or by (a) cash, (b) cashier's check or money order, (c) personal check with approved credit drawn on a U.S. bank, (d) wire transfer or other immediate bank transfer, or (e) Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit, charge or debit card. A processing fee will be assessed on any returned checks. Please note that the amount of cash notes and cash equivalents that can be accepted from a given purchaser may be limited.

The purchaser grants us a security interest in the property, and we may retain as collateral security for the purchaser's obligations to us, any property and all monies held or received by us for the account of the purchaser, in our possession. We retain all rights of a secured party under the California Commercial Code. If the foregoing conditions or any other applicable conditions herein are not complied with, in addition to other remedies available to us and the consignor by law, including without limitation, the right to hold the purchaser liable for the purchase price, we at our option may either (a) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages all payments made by the purchaser or (b) resell the property, either publicly or privately, and in such event the purchaser shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency plus all costs and expenses of both sales, our commission at our standard rates, all other charges due hereunder, attorneys' fees, expenses and incidental damages. In addition, where two or more amounts are owed in respect of different transactions by the purchaser to us, to Bonhams 1793 Limited and/or to any of our other affiliates, subsidiaries or parent companies worldwide within the Bonhams Group, we reserve the right to apply any monies paid in respect of a transaction to discharge any amount owed by the purchaser. If all fees, commissions, premiums, bid price and other sums due to us from the purchaser are not paid promptly as provided in these Conditions of Sale, we reserve the right to impose a finance charge equal to 1.5% per month on all amounts due to us beginning on the 31st day following the sale until payment is received, in addition to other remedies available to us by law.

3. We reserve the right to withdraw any property and to divide and combine lots at any time before such property's auction. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are per lot as numbered in the catalog and no lots shall be divided or combined for sale.

4. We reserve the right to reject a bid from any bidder, to split any bidding increment, and to advance the bidding in any manner the auctioneer may decide. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or in the event the auctioneer doubts the validity of any bid, the auctioneer shall have sole and final discretion either to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and resell the article in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, our sales records shall be conclusive in all respects.

5. If we are prevented by fire, theft or any other reason whatsoever from delivering any property to the purchaser or a sale otherwise cannot be completed, our liability shall be limited to the sum actually paid therefor by the purchaser and shall in no event include any compensatory, incidental or consequential damages.

6. If a lot is offered subject to a reserve, we may implement such reserve by bidding on behalf of the consignor, whether by opening bidding or continuing bidding in response to other bidders until reaching the reserve. If we have an interest in an offered lot and the proceeds therefrom other than our commissions, we may bid therefor to protect such interest. CONSIGNORS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO BID ON THEIR OWN ITEMS.

7. All statements contained in the catalog or in any bill of sale, condition report, invoice or elsewhere as to authorship, period, culture, source, origin, measurement, quality, rarity, provenance, importance, exhibition and literature of historical relevance, or physical condition ARE QUALIFIED STATEMENTS OF OPINION AND NOT REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES. No employee or agent of Bonhams is authorized to make on our behalf or on that of the consignor any representation or warranty, oral or written, with respect to any property.

8. All purchased property shall be removed from the premises at which the sale is conducted by the date(s) and time(s) set forth in the "Buyer's Guide" portion of this catalog. Property designated with a "W" and associated purchased lots, if not removed promptly following sale, will be transferred to an offsite warehouse at the purchaser's risk and expense, as set forth in more detail in the "Buyer's Guide." Purchased property that is permitted to remain onsite at Bonhams' facility should be removed at the purchaser's expense not later than 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time five (5) business days following the date of the sale. If not so removed, a storage fee of $5.00 per lot per day will be payable to us by the purchaser beginning at the close of the 21st day following the sale, and we may thereafter transfer such property to an offsite warehouse at the purchaser's risk and expense. Accounts must be settled in full before property will be released. Packing and handling of purchased lots are the responsibility of the purchaser. Bonhams can provide packing and shipping services for certain items as noted in the "Buyer's Guide" section of the catalog.

9. The copyright in the text of the catalog and the photographs, digital images and illustrations of lots in the catalog belong to Bonhams or its licensors. You will not reproduce or permit anyone else to reproduce such text, photographs, digital images or illustrations without our prior written consent.

10. These Conditions of Sale shall bind the successors and assigns of all bidders and purchasers and inure to the benefit of our successors and assigns. No waiver, amendment or modification of the terms hereof (other than posted notices or oral announcements during the sale) shall bind us unless specifically stated in writing and signed by us. If any part of these Conditions of Sale is for any reason invalid or unenforceable, the rest shall remain valid and enforceable.

11. These Conditions of Sale and the purchaser's and our respective rights and obligations hereunder are governed by the laws of the State of California. By bidding at an auction, each purchaser and bidder agrees to be bound by these Conditions of Sale. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this agreement, or the breach, termination or validity thereof, brought by or against Bonhams (but not including claims brought against the consignor by the purchaser of lots consigned hereunder) shall be resolved by the procedures set forth below.

Mediation and Arbitration Procedures

(a) Within 30 days of written notice that there is a dispute, the parties or their authorized and empowered representatives shall meet by telephone and/or in person to mediate their differences. If the parties agree, a mutually acceptable mediator shall be selected and the parties will equally share such mediator's fees. The mediator shall be a retired judge or an attorney familiar with commercial law and trained in or qualified by experience in handling mediations. Any communications made during the mediation process shall not be admissible in any subsequent arbitration, mediation or judicial proceeding. All proceedings and any resolutions thereof shall be confidential, and the terms governing arbitration set forth in paragraph (c) below shall govern.

(b) If mediation does not resolve all disputes between the parties, or in any event no longer than 60 days after receipt of the written notice of dispute referred to above, the parties shall submit the dispute for binding arbitration before a single neutral arbitrator. Such arbitrator shall be a retired judge or an attorney familiar with commercial law and trained in or qualified by experience in handling arbitrations. Such arbitrator shall make all appropriate disclosures required by law. The arbitrator shall be drawn from a panel of a national arbitration service agreed to by the parties, and shall be selected as follows: (i) If the national arbitration service has specific rules or procedures, those rules or procedures shall be followed; (ii) If the national arbitration service does not have rules or procedures for the selection of an arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be an individual jointly agreed to by the parties. If the parties cannot agree on a national arbitration service, the arbitration shall be conducted by the American Arbitration Association, and the arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitrator's award shall be in writing and shall set forth findings of fact and legal conclusions.

(B) The parties shall submit written briefs to the arbitrator no later than 15 days before the arbitration commences;

(C) Discovery, if any, shall be limited as follows: (I) Requests for no more than 10 categories of documents, to be provided to the requesting party within 14 days of written request therefor; (II) No more than two (2) depositions per party, provided however, the deposition(s) are to be completed within one (1) day; (III) Compliance with the above shall be enforced by the arbitrator in accordance with California law;

(D) Each party shall have no longer than eight (8) hours to present its position. The entire hearing before the arbitrator shall not take longer than three (3) consecutive days;

(E) The award shall be made in writing no more than 30 days following the end of the proceeding. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, and except as required by applicable arbitration rules, each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs in connection with the proceedings and shall share equally the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

Limited Right of Rescission

If within one (1) year from the date of sale, the original purchaser (a) gives written notice to us alleging that the identification of Authorship (as defined below) of such lot as set forth in the BOLD TYPE heading of the catalog description of such lot (as amended by any saleroom notices or verbal announcements during the sale) is not substantially correct based on a fair reading of the catalog (including the terms of any glossary contained therein), and (b) within 10 days after such notice returns the lot to us in the same condition as at the time of sale, and (c) establishes the allegation in the notice to our satisfaction (including by providing one or more written opinions by recognized experts in the field, as we may reasonably require), then the sale of such lot will be rescinded and, unless we have already paid to the consignor monies owed him in connection with the sale, the original purchase price will be refunded.

If, prior to receiving such notice from the original purchaser alleging such defect, we have paid the consignor monies owed him in connection with the sale, we shall pay the original purchaser the amount of our commissions, any other sale proceeds to which we are entitled and applicable taxes received from the purchaser on the sale and make demand on the consignor to pay the balance of the original purchase price to the original purchaser. Should the consignor fail to pay such amount promptly, we may disclose the identity of the consignor and assign to the original purchaser our rights against the consignor with respect to the lot the sale of which is sought to be rescinded. Upon such disclosure and assignment, any liability of Bonhams as consignor's agent with respect to said lot shall automatically terminate.

The foregoing limited right of rescission is available to the original purchaser only and may not be assigned to or relied upon by any subsequent transferee of the property sold. The purchaser hereby accepts the benefit of the consignor's warranty of title and other representations and warranties made by the consignor for the purchaser's benefit. Nothing in this section shall be construed as an admission by us of any representation of fact, express or implied, obligation or responsibility with respect to any lot. THE PURCHASER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY AGAINST BONHAMS

FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER IS THE LIMITED RIGHT OF RESCISSION DESCRIBED IN THIS SECTION.

"Authorship" means only the identity of the creator, the period, culture and source or origin of the lot, as the case may be, as set forth in the BOLD TYPE heading of the print catalog entry. The right of rescission does not extend to: (a) works of art executed before 1870 (unless these works are determined to be counterfeits created since 1870), as this is a matter of current scholarly opinion which can change; (b) titles, descriptions, or other identification of offered lots, which information normally appears in lower case type below the BOLD TYPE heading identifying the Authorship; (c) Authorship of any lot where it was specifically mentioned that there exists a conflict of specialist or scholarly opinion regarding the Authorship of the lot at the time of sale; (d) Authorship of any lot which as of the date of sale was in accordance with the then generally-accepted opinion of scholars and specialists regarding the same; or (e) the identification of periods or dates of creation in catalog descriptions which may be proven inaccurate by means of scientific processes that are not generally accepted for use until after publication of the catalog in which the property is offered or that were unreasonably expensive or impractical to use at the time of such publication.

Limitation of Liability

EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED ABOVE, ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS." NEITHER BONHAMS NOR THE CONSIGNOR MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS OR CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY OR AS TO THE CORRECTNESS OF DESCRIPTION, GENUINENESS, ATTRIBUTION, PROVENANCE OR PERIOD OF THE PROPERTY OR AS TO WHETHER THE PURCHASER ACQUIRES ANY COPYRIGHTS OR OTHER INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS IN LOTS SOLD OR AS TO WHETHER A WORK OF ART IS SUBJECT TO THE ARTIST'S MORAL RIGHTS OR OTHER RESIDUAL RIGHTS OF THE ARTIST. THE PURCHASER EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IN NO EVENT SHALL BONHAMS BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY COMPENSATORY, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.

SELLER'S GUIDE

SELLING AT AUCTION

Bonhams can help you every step of the way when you are ready to sell art, antiques and collectible items at auction. Our regional offices and representatives throughout the US are available to service all of your needs. Should you have any further questions, please visit our website at www.bonhams.com/us for more information or call our Client Services Department at +1 (800) 223 2854 ext. 3550.

Auction Estimates

The first step in the auction process is to determine the auction value of your property. Bonhams' world-renowned specialists will evaluate your special items at no charge and in complete confidence. You can obtain an auction estimate in many ways:

- Attend one of our Auction Appraisal Events held regularly at our galleries and in other major metropolitan areas. The updated schedule for Bonhams Auction Appraisal Events is available at www.bonhams.com/us.
- Call our Client Services Department to schedule a private appointment at one of our galleries. If you have a large collection, our specialists can travel, by appointment, to evaluate your property on site.
- Send clear photographs to us of each individual item, including item dimensions and other pertinent information with each picture. Photos should be sent to Bonhams' address in envelopes marked as "photo auction estimate". Alternatively, you can submit your request using our online form at www.bonhams.com/us. Digital images may be attached to the form. Please limit your images to no more than five (5) per item.

Consigning Your Property

After you receive an estimate, you may consign your property to us for sale in the next appropriate auction. Our staff assists you throughout the process, arranging transportation of your items to our galleries (at the consignor's expense), providing a detailed inventory of your consignment, and reporting the prices realized for each lot. We provide secure storage for your property in our warehouses and all items are insured throughout the auction process. You will receive payment for your property approximately 35 days after completion of sale.

Sales commissions vary with the potential auction value of the property and the particular auction in which the property is offered. Please call us for commission rates.

Professional Appraisal Services

Bonhams' specialists conduct insurance and fair market value appraisals for private collectors, corporations, museums, fiduciaries and government entities on a daily basis. Insurance appraisals, used for insurance purposes, reflect the cost of replacing property in today's retail market. Fair market value appraisals are used for estate, tax and family division purposes and reflect prices paid by a willing buyer to a willing seller.

When we conduct a private appraisal, our specialists will prepare a thorough inventory listing of all your appraised property by category. Valuations, complete descriptions and locations of items are included in the documentation.

Appraisal fees vary according to the nature of the collection, the amount of work involved, the travel distance, and whether the property is subsequently consigned for auction.

Our appraisers are available to help you anywhere and at any time. Please call our Client Services Department to schedule an appraisal.

Estate Services

Since 1865, Bonhams has been serving the needs of fiduciaries – lawyers, trust officers, accountants and executors – in the disposition of large and small estates. Our services are specially designed to aid in the efficient appraisal and disposition of fine art, antiques, jewelry, and collectibles. We offer a full range of estate services, ranging from flexible financial terms to tailored accounting for heirs and their agents to world-class marketing and sales support.

Auction previews are your chance to inspect each lot prior to the auction. We encourage you to look closely and examine each object on which you may want to bid so that you will know as much as possible about it. Items are sold "as is" and with all faults; illustrations in our catalogs, website and other materials are provided for identification only. At the previews, our staff is always available to answer your questions and guide you through the auction process. Condition reports may be available upon request.

Estimates

Bonhams catalogs include estimates for each lot, exclusive of buyer's premium and tax. The estimates are provided as an approximate guide to current market value and should not be interpreted as a representation or prediction of actual selling prices. They are determined well in advance of a sale and are subject to revision. Please contact us should you have any questions about value estimates.

Reserves

All lots in a catalog are subject to a reserve unless otherwise indicated. The reserve is the minimum price that the seller is willing to accept for a lot. This amount is confidential and does not exceed the low estimated value.

BIDDING AT AUCTION

At Bonhams, you can bid in many ways: in person, via absentee bid, over the phone, or via Bonhams' online bidding facility. Absentee bids can be submitted in person, online, via fax or via email.

A valid Bonhams client account is required to participate in bidding activity. You can obtain registration information online, at the reception desk or by calling our Client Services Department.

By bidding at auction, whether in person or by agent, by absentee bid, telephone, online or other means, the buyer or bidder agrees to be bound by the Conditions of Sale.

Lots are auctioned in consecutive numerical order as they appear in the catalog. Bidding normally begins below the low estimate. The auctioneer will accept bids from interested parties present in the saleroom, from telephone bidders, and from absentee bidders who have left written bids in advance of the sale. The auctioneer may also execute bids on behalf of the consignor up to the amount of the reserve, but never above it.

We assume no responsibility for failure to execute bids for any reason whatsoever.

In Person

If you are planning to bid at auction, you will need to register at the reception desk in order to receive a numbered bid card. To place a bid, hold up your card so that the auctioneer can clearly see it. Decide on the maximum amount that you wish to pay, exclusive of buyer's premium and tax, and continue bidding until your bid prevails or you reach your limit. If you are the successful bidder on a lot, the auctioneer will acknowledge your paddle number and bid amount.

Absentee Bids

As a service to those wishing to place bids, we may at our discretion accept bids without charge in advance of sale by telephone, by facsimile or in writing on bidding forms available from us. "Buy" bids will not be accepted; all bids must state the highest bid price the bidder is willing to pay. Our auction staff will try to bid just as you would, with the goal of obtaining the item at the lowest bid price possible. In the event identical bids are submitted, the earliest bid submitted will take precedence. Absentee bids shall be executed in competition with other absentee bids, any applicable reserve, and bids from other auction participants. A friend or agent may place bids on your behalf, provided that we have received your written authorization prior to the sale. Absentee bid forms are available in our catalogs, online at www.bonhams.com/us, and at our San Francisco, Los Angeles and New York galleries.

By Telephone

Under special circumstances, we can arrange for you to bid by telephone. To arrange for a telephone bid, please contact our Client Services Department a minimum of 24 hours prior to the sale.

Online

Web users may place absentee bids online from anywhere in the world. To bid online, please visit our website at www.bonhams.com/us.

We are pleased to make our live online bidding facility available to bidders in this sale.

Additional terms and conditions of sale relating to online bidding will apply. Please see www.bonhams.com/20902 or contact the Client Services Department to obtain information and learn how you can register and bid online in this sale.

Solely for the convenience of bidders, a currency converter may be provided at Bonhams sales. The rates quoted for conversion of other currencies to U.S. Dollars are indications only and should not be relied upon by a bidder, and neither Bonhams nor its agents shall be responsible for any errors or omissions in the operation or accuracy of the currency converter.

Buyer's Premium

A buyer's premium is added to the winning bid price of each individual lot purchased, at the rates set forth in the Conditions of Sale. The winning bid price plus the premium constitute the purchase price for the lot. Applicable sales taxes are computed based on this figure, and the total becomes your final purchase price.

Unless specifically illustrated and noted, fine art frames are not included in the estimate or purchase price. Bonhams accepts no liability for damage or loss to frames during storage or shipment.

All sales are final and subject to the Conditions of Sale found in our catalogs, on our website, and available at the reception desk.

Payment

All buyers are asked to pay and pick up by 3pm on the business day following the auction. Payment may be made to Bonhams by cash, checks drawn on a U.S. bank, money order, wire transfer, or by Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover credit or charge card or debit card. All items must be paid for within 5 business days of the sale. Please note that payment by personal or business check may result in property not being released until purchase funds clear our bank.

Sales Tax

California, Arizona, Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Nevada, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Texas, Washington DC and Washington state residents must pay applicable sales tax. Other state or local taxes (or compensating use taxes) may apply. Sales tax will be automatically added to the invoice unless a valid resale number has been furnished or the property is shipped via common carrier to destinations outside the states listed above. If you wish to use your resale license please contact Cashiers for our form.

This heading, without the inclusion of the date, indicates that, in our opinion, the piece, while basically of the period, has undergone significant restoration and alteration.

George III Style Mahogany Chest of Drawers

The inclusion of the word "style" in the heading indicates that, in our opinion, the piece was made as an intentional reproduction of an earlier style.

BRONZES

Antoine-Louis Barye

This heading indicates that the casting and patination were done by the artist or with his direct authorization or supervision.

Cast After a Model by Antoine-Louis Barye

Meissen Porcelain Cup and Saucer

Circa 1900

This heading states that the cup and saucer were made at the Meissen factory around the year 1900.

'Meissen' Porcelain Cup and a Saucer

19th Century

This heading states that the cup and saucer are of Meissen style, and although of the date specified, not necessarily made at the Meissen factory.

Meissen Porcelain Cup and Saucer

Notice Regarding Endangered Species

The export of a lot from the United States or import into certain countries may be subject to export and import regulations, licensure and/or other restrictions; in particular, lots containing animal materials such as ivory, rhinoceros horn, tortoise shell or whalebone may require the granting of one or more export or import licenses or may be banned from import altogether by some countries. Lots noted in the catalog with a Y next to the lot number (e.g., 1001<sup>Y</sup>) contain one or more such animal materials. It is the buyer's responsibility to investigate any such restrictions and to obtain any relevant export and import licences. Please note that this process is governed by local authorities and may take considerable time. Regardless of any delay in the obtaining of an export or import license or denial of a license's issuance, purchased lots shall be paid for in accordance with the Conditions of Sale, and any such delay or denial shall not serve as the basis for the cancellation of any sale. Queen Elizabeth

Born Sep. tr - 8th - 1533

Began to Reign Nov. r 17th - 1558

Died April 3rd - 1603

Painted by Henry Bone R.A.

Enamel painter in Ordinary to His Majesty.

and Enamel painter to His Royal Highness

the Prince Regent, after the Original by Zuccherro in the Collection of the Most

Noble the Marquis of Salisbury, Hatfield=

=House, Herts. -

dimensions 9 1/4 x 7 1/2 in (23.5 x 19cm)

$8,000 - 12,000

Provenance:

Mrs. T. Charlton Henry (Julia Rush Biddle) (1886-1978) of the Philadelphia Biddle's was a socialite and museum benefactor who split her time between Philadelphia and Switzerland. She was noted in 1968 Life magazine as one of the "Grande Dames Who Grace America" and described as a A lover of fine clothes and a devoted walker, she is trim and doll-like and has been named to the Best-Dressed Hall of Fame. Later in life she became an avid jogger and was dubbed the 'Aristocratic Grande Dame of Jogging'

Her 1965 portrait by Diane Arbus (1923-1971), currently in the collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2001.399, was first published in Harper's Bazaar. The accompanying text describes Mrs. T. Charlton Henry as weighing a fragile, feminine ninety pounds, but moves through life like Trojan.

By all accounts, Mrs. T. Charlton Henry was an influential and fashionable woman; therefore, one can easily imagine how she was attracted to this portrait of the mighty Queen adorned in a highly elaborate and symbolic gown.

Notes:

Once attributed to Taddeo Zuccero (1529 - 1566), the Rainbow Portrait is now attributed Isaac Oliver (c.1565 - 1617). Oliver was best known for his portrait miniatures depicting many of luminaries of the Elizabethan age.

The original Rainbow portrait, circa 1600, is in the collection of the Marquess of Salisbury at Hatfield House.

Henry Bone, (enameler of the offered lot), was born in Truro, the son of a successful cabinet-maker. He apprenticed as a china-painter to William Cookworthy and then to Richard Champion of Bristol. After the failure of the later factory, he began exhibiting enamels at the Royal Academy. He was recognized, then as today, as a successful miniaturist of portraits and copies after old master paintings; many of them produced in a large size not seen before.

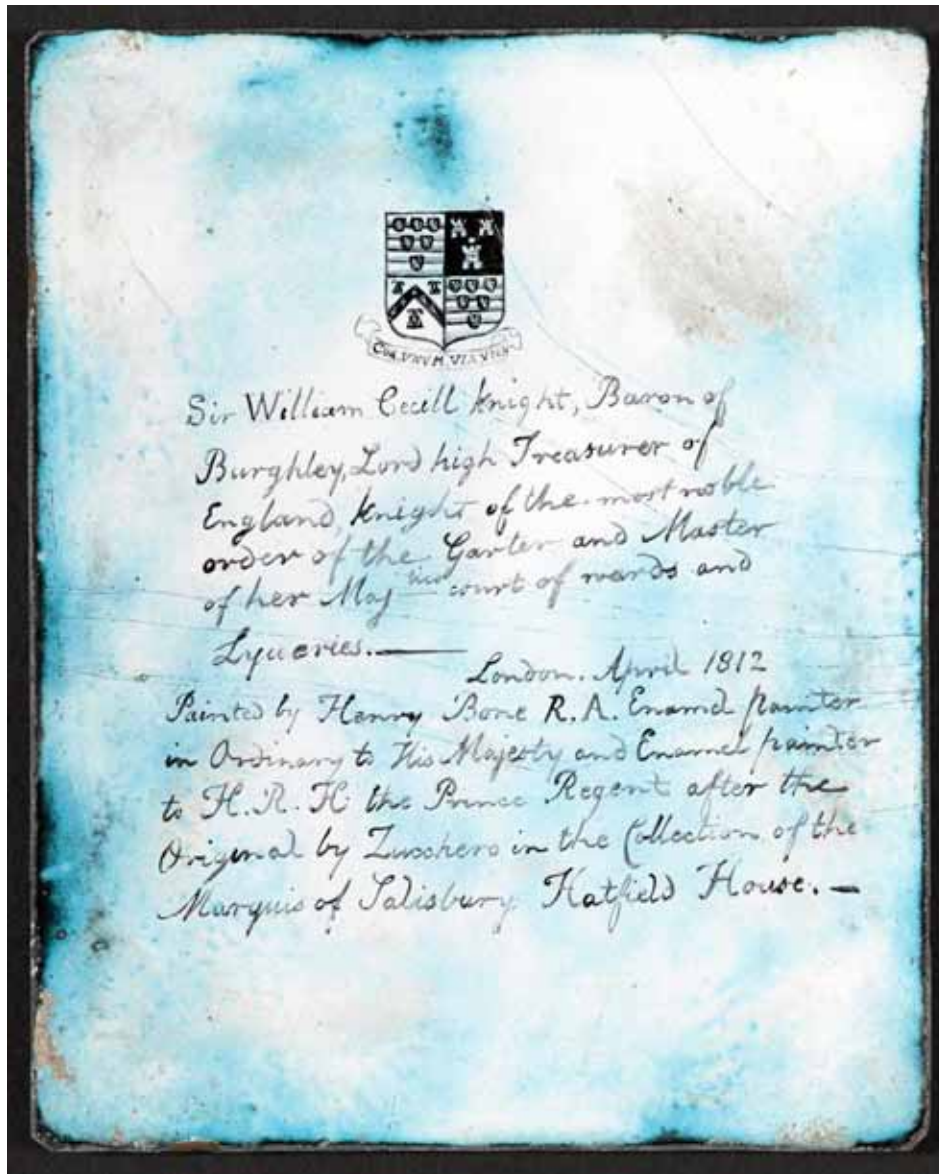

In 1800 he was appointed Enamel Painter to George III and subsequently to George IV and William IV and in 1811 was elected a Royal Academician (RA). He proudly incorporated these references in the lengthy inscriptions on the backs of his miniatures, as seen in these two offered lots.

Bone's largest series of works comprised approximately eighty-five historical portraits from the time of Elizabeth I, and it is probable that the offered enamels were of this series. Unfortunately, despite the masterful quality, the Elizabethan collection did not prove a financial success, and many were sold at auction after his death in 1834.

London, April 1812

Painted by Henry Bone R.A. Enamel painter in Ordinary to His Majesty and Enamel painter to H.R.H. the Prince Regent after the Original by Zucchero in the Collection of the Marquis of Salisbury Hatfield House.

plaque 8 1/4 x 6 3/4in (21 x 17cm)

$7,000 - 9,000

The prototype for the present lot remains at Hatfield House in the possession of the Marquess of Salisbury. The attribution to Taddeo Zuccaro (1529-1566) has now been discarded in favor of one to Marcus Gheeraerts the Younger (1561/2-1636), although there is a school of thought that prefers John de Critz the Elder (c.1552-1642).

The National Portrait Gallery of London (NPGD17108) has a preparative drawing by Henry Bone of William Cecil, 1st Baron Burghley. The sketch is squared for transfer and dated December 1811

An enamel portrait of William Cecil also by Henry Bone but dated 1829, was offered Bonhams, London, Fine Portrait Miniatures, May 21, 2008, lot 32.

Robert Dollar (1844-1932), was born in Falkirk, Scotland. He immigrated to North America and worked in the woods of Ontario, Michigan and Northern California for lumber companies. He eventually came to own timber land and logging operations, extensive commercial shipping and a fleet of pleasure cruise ships, in addition he was a generous philanthropist. In 1895, he acquired his first vessel, a single steam schooner called Newsboy, to move his lumber from the Pacific Northwest to markets down the coast. Thus began his entry into the shipping industry that included lumber, commodities, mail, and passengers.

The Dollar fleet was a common sight from Canada to Canton, San Francisco to Shanghai, and Tacoma to Tokyo. California Governor James Rolph, Jr. stated, "Robert Dollar has done more in his lifetime to spread the American flag on the high seas than any man in this country."

Crown Point Gold and Silver Mining Company

One of the richest mines of the Comstock Lode, the Crown Point Mine was staked in 1859 between the Belcher and Kentuck Mines and was 540' long. Superintendent John P. Jones' discovery of a silver bonanza at the 900' level in 1871 revived general interest in the Comstock after initial mining had exhausted surface deposits. In 1886 the Belcher and Crown Point Mines combined to mill low grade ore in the upper levels of both mines. In 1915 the Yellow Jacket, Crown Point, and Belcher mines consolidated into the Jacket-Crown Point-Belcher Mines Company; in 1920 they became part of the United Comstock Mining Company.

Gotthard Koehler (1823 - 1894) and Charles Ritter (1840 - ) came to San Francisco as German immigrants who joined a thriving community of German silversmiths and began their careers working under the leadership of Friedrich R. Reichel (c. 1824-1867). The two associates took over the firm in 1867 when Reichel died, advertising themselves as "Successors to F.R. Reichel" and continued working at the firm's original location at 620 Merchant Street.

In the 1870's their business flourished and they relocated to the more fashionable address of 26 Post Street. Unfortunately, business was not as successful in this location and they ended their partnership in 1885.

The Italian born Alfredo Pina (1883-1966) studied at the Accademia di Brera and in 1906 won the Gran Premio Nazionale for sculpture. He moved to Paris before the First World War, where he was influenced by the work of Rodin and Bourdelle, and expressed this through his portraits of Victor Hugo and Tolstoy and the practice of an impressionistic stroke.

Pina's biographer Pawlowski explains: 'Here at first is the Extreme Effort toward liberation, the mad hope of deliverance splendidly represented by this man who, kneeling on a rock, turns his head toward implacable heaven and wrings his arms'.

Steinway & Company, 1924

L. Alavoine et Compagnie, Paris, 1925

Possibly the Russian Embassy, Washington, D.C., 1925-1938

St. Anthony Hotel, San Antonio, Texas 1938-1990

Private Collection, California, 1990 – present

According to the Steinway & Co. records, the piano was completed on August 19, 1924 as a Model L Player Piano. It was then shipped to the Paris firm of L. Alavoine et Compagnie for decoration. It was delivered to the Aeolian Company New York City on September 21, 1925 for one of Aeolian's clients. This superb piano is illustrated on page 169 of Steinway, Ronald V. Ratcliffe, Henry Z. Steinway and identified as a Hamburg Steinway, designed for the Russian embassy in Paris and owned by the St. Anthony Hotel in San Antonio. The player mechanism was removed some time ago and the piano has been restrung for use as a manual instrument. This was probably done at the time the piano was installed in the St. Anthony Hotel.

The St. Anthony Hotel opened in January, 1909. The hotel was purchased in 1935 by Ralph W. Morrison who wanted to elevate the hotel to world class prestige. Mr. Morrison was an avid traveler and throughout his ownership purchased French Empire as well as 19th century French furniture to adorn the hotel's public rooms. In a newsletter from the 1983 National Preservation Conference, held at the St. Anthony, Mr. Morrison is mentioned as having purchased the piano "made for a czar" from the Russian Embassy in Paris in 1938 for the price of $27,000.

The hotel changed ownership a few times but the piano remained in the lobby as part of the famous Peacock Alley cocktail lounge. Eleanor Roosevelt, President Eisenhower, General MacArthur and Princess Grace of Monaco are just a few noted persons who visited that lounge. The piano remained in the lobby until the early 1990's when it was moved to California by one of the owners. A newspaper article by David Anthony Richelieu in the San Antonio Express mourned the loss of one of San Antonio's treasures when the piano left the hotel for California. In that article Mr. Richelieu dismissed the story about the piano having been owned by Czar Nicholas II. He did, however, indicate the piano was made in 1924 for the Soviet Embassy in Paris and was later installed in the Soviet Embassy in Washington "where Morrison paid $27,000" for the piano.

The superb marquetry and casting of the mounts point to a highly skilled ebeniste and bronze maker and are of the quality one would expect of the late 19th/early 20th century makers such as Francois Linke or Joseph-Emmanuel Zwiener. L. Alavoine et Compagnie were important interior designers who maintained offices in Paris and New York. The Plaza Hotel, as well as several Stanford White buildings, were decorated in the Beaux Art style by that firm. It is not known whom they commissioned to decorate the offered piano. On page 175 of the Ratcliffe book, there is an image of a Louis XV style Steinway art case that is mounted with many of the identical mounts on this piano. A Steinway piano sold by Sotheby's, New York, lot 15, January 27, 2012 bears many of the identical mounts found on the offered piano. These include the putto seated among clouds playing a lyre, the lush floral cast chutes, scrolling leaf cast sabots and some of the encadrements.

There is no known documentation to substantiate the piano being made for or placed in the Russian Embassy either in Paris or Washington, D.C. The Russian Embassy was originally a Beaux Art mansion built for Mrs. George Pullman in 1910. It was sold to the Russian government in 1913 and has been a residence for Russian Ambassadors to the U.S. since that time.

The ancient technique of mosaic was revived in Europe during the 16th century after Roman antiquities, including mosaics, began to be unearthed in archaeological excavations. Techniques developed and improved, with mosaic images becoming increasingly subtle as the individual glass pieces, known as tesserae, became smaller, and the range of available colour pigments grew larger. In 1588 Ferdinand de' Medici established the Grand Ducal workshop in Florence, which supported and patronised the specialised art of hardstone mosaics. Many craftsmen were trained in Florence before setting up studios around Italy. Pietre dure mosaics were produced in Florence, Milan and Rome, and were emulated in Prague and St. Petersburg. Soon craftsmen were attempting to create the perfect 'stone paintings' through the clever exploitation of the natural variations in pigment of the stones. In the 18th century the glass micromosaic technique was developed in the Vatican Mosaic Workshop in Rome, and plaques depicting views of Ancient Rome were among the favorite Grand Tour souvenirs.

A North Italian (Emilian) carved marble relief depicting the Adoration of the Shepherds possibly late 16th / 17th century

Depicting the Holy Family, shepherds and their animals attending the Child with awe and a winged putto overhead holding a scroll, all before columnar arch with the Star of Bethlehem shining over a temple beyond, within a carved ebonized wood frame.

sight dimensions 24 3/4 x 18 3/4in (63 x 47.5cm); framed dimensions 38 1/4 x 30 1/4 x 6 3/4in (97 x 77 x 17cm)

$10,000 - 20,000

Provenance: Ex-Collection of William Randolph Hearst

This composition is known in various 16th century bronze plaquettes, and the style and technique points to an Emilian sculptor. The bronze plaques are dated 1561 and so the original design must pre-date that year. A plaquette of almost identical form to the present marble relief is in the National Gallery of Art, Washington DC (Widener Collection). Intriguingly, it is signed PARM INVENT. Numerous attributions have been suggested for the artist based on this inscription, including the medallist Gian Federico Bonzagni, called Parmese who signed himself with an abbreviation of his Christian name, followed by PARM. Others have suggested that the original composition was after a now lost drawing or print by Parmigianino, who died in 1540. In more recent literature A. Geber has refuted these attributions but we are now no closer to firmly attributing the plaquettes or the present marble relief.

A pendant plaquette depicting the Lamentation, so similar in style and form that it must certainly be by the same hand, is also in the National Gallery of Art, Washington (Widener Collection), and an example was sold at Bonhams, in the Adams Collection, May 23, 1996, lot 160. An example of the Adoration of the Shepherds plaquette was sold at Sotheby's, Paris, October 18, 2006, lot 9. A further version is in the National Museum of Scotland. No other marble versions are known.

Chriemhilde (or Kriemhild) is one of the protagonists of the German medieval epic poem, "The Nibelungenlied." The sister of Gunter, king of the Burgundians, Chriemhilde weds Siegfried, the heroic dragon-slaying crown prince of Xanten. Due to a dispute between Chriemhilde and King Gunter's wife, Brünhild of Iceland, Siegfried is ignobly murdered by one of Gunter's vassals. Chriemhilde, who blames her brother the King for the killing, travels east across the Danube, marries Attila the Hun, and plans her revenge against the Burgundians. The epic ends in a bloody slaughter of all of the Burgundians at the hand of Chriemhilde, and Chriemhilde's own death under the sword of the monk Hildebrand.

Freidrich Goldscheider, aware of the contemporary pre-eminence of French terracottas and in order to better compete in the French market, opened a factory on the rue de Paradis in Paris in 1891. He employed French artists to create the models he would produce there, including Charpentier, Alouard, Levasseur and Carrier-Belleuse. Because of the anti-German sentiment present in France during the decades following the Franco-Prussian War, Goldscheider attempted to make his productions (and even his artist's names) as Franco-sympathetic as possible. Thus, the present model was known on the French market as "Frédègonde," referring to a Merovingian queen in a French legend with some similarities to the Nibelungen saga.
